Dear Stan—

Thank you for your letter relative to the 1865 to 1900/9. V.F. also the 1906 Roman E.F.

I have been able to secure the 1907 from Coin Galleries - N.Y.

I'm primarily interested in better grades - than V.F.

If you have some nice E.F. to uncirculated let me know.

Let me know if any desirable coins show up. I can handle any quantity - cash transactions

Best regards
Sincerely, Lm

Alan Kesselman -

I am returning 1869
as too badly worn for my use. The 1893 is a V.F. but I'll take it at your price anyway. The 1866 is a $6500 - retailer hereabouts
but I'll take it anyway.
The 1884 is badly bruised and edge nicked but I'll buy it hoping you can help me out with the 1874 EF and 1876 EF.

So see what you can work out for me in this connection. (3 or 4 is O.K.)

I'll look at the list of early gold - might use some personally.

Dear Steve -

In one of your letters you offered the 1883 CC eagle at $55 - I'll take it -

On your list I can use the following.

1909 D. & F. up to 5 coins at	$20	60 ea.
1889 AU. up to 10 coins at		$75 ea.
1916 & Unc. up to 10 coins at		$65 ea.

I am quite heavy in lower grades Sorry I can't use more of the rarer dates you have that are V.F.

Kindest regards

LM

Need some gem early dates. 1850 $20 - ect

In heavy in tens. Thanks -
Can use early twenties.

The 18580 you wrote about sounds interesting. May I see it on approval?

Let me know what you might have acquired in N.Y. in 20s.

Send along the 1850s etc.
I can use several -

Thanks for your letters - sorry I can't use the rarer eagles.

Dear Sam -

Sorry we couldn't get together on the last lots but maybe we will at another time.

I have bid on forty lots at the next Stacks sale this week. Maybe I'll be lucky and get several.

Some of the 100 coin lots look interesting in the Double Eagles. I bid $4500 and $4600 on two of the collections.

Will let you know -
Glad your sales are clicking so well. Personally I'm just trying.

Kindest regards

Dear Stanley -

Just finished my tax chore and it was trying.

I checked the 1891 CC Twenties and find by comparison the two last sent are not quite as good as to strike and fineness.

What I want is Unc. - or Am.
Maybe $225 to $250 if good and brilliant
As to 1871, I need at least 50.

I showed your coins to a prospect who would be willing to pay $550 net. If not interested I'll return them registered and insured to your N.Y. address

I am pretty heavy in gold at this time. Will attend the CINA. late this month - might find better grades. in CC gold
I seek.

How well do you know Weslee?
He sent me several lists offering 10% off for $2000 purchase - I ordered more than $2000 and he backed out. Said he made a mistake -

Sorroy I can't go $600 for these last two. Stan but if you can take $550 I'll have check sent immediately.

Advise
Happy Easter!!

Stan Stan -

My girl Friday visited the P.O. twice to present claim for your corn. The second trip the P.O. Dept advised that you were to file the claim. which you did — It was not my idea —

Now as to the 1889 CC #70 A.U. full lustre — I find the edges badly nicked — bruised and mashed — stars worn low. lustre slight. The corn grades low V.F. not A.U. Stanley are you sure this is the corn you wanted me to see?

Herewith is the corn —
Please check it again

If I'm wrong - Please let me know -

Thank you for submitting the coin - Sorry it is too low in grade for my use -

Dear Kesselman

Have not received the two coins as of today viz 1883^{*10} - 1874^{*20}.

Will take care of this on receipt.

Don't need the 1889 AU. ^{*20} but would speculate on them if strictly AU. $150 for the pair.

Must be A.U. or I can't use them.

Have no need for 1879 O or the 1860 O. Regarding 1850 - prefer

E.F. at a little more. Did you see the V.F. grades - ? Some

E.F.s are only V.F. and V.F. only.
Fine.

Are you attending Stacks
Feb 4 sale? Some nice coins

The bulk lots seem interesting.

Think I could try some of the 100 coin lots at $44 or $45 each

All pages 68-69-70 of Stacks Catalogue

Can I try U.S. assay. 1853 $20
unc. at $400 to $425?

Whatever happened to Walter Mussel? He sure had a great collection of coins. I bought quite a few from him.

Received the 3 - 1893 cc $20.

They are nice except for the two that are so badly toned. Looks almost like tarnish.

Can you see your way clear to take $125.00 a piece and I'll make it up on something else - Similar coins selling hereabouts at $130 to $135 retail.

Let me know so I can either return or send cash -
